

Musical For Benefit of French Orphans Promises to Be a Treat

By DOROTHY H. JOHNSON.

THE beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schwartz, 1501 Mesa avenue, will be the scene of an unusually lovely artistic and social event, on Saturday, when Miss Winifred Woods, assisted by Helen Cooper Williams, soprano, will appear in recital for the benefit of the College Woman's club French orphans' adoption fund. Mrs. W. F. Follett is accompanist. Miss Woods, who is a remarkably gifted young musician, is a pupil of Miss Mary Goodbar Morgan, and prominent in the MacDowell club personnel. Herself of French extraction, Miss Woods has long wanted to make some individual gift to the children "over there" who live in daily terror of bombing from all sides and bombs from airplanes. Most of them have not seen their fathers for years—many of them never will, the latter having willingly sold the sacrifice for their country. And the only bright spots in their lives come from these American "good parents" and their gifts.

Mrs. Williams delights in singing for such a cause and her glorious voice will be heard on the morrow, in Massena's "Aria de Salome" from the opera "Hérodiade," which gives scope for her splendid training. The program starts at 2:30 p. m. Miss Woods giving the following excellent arranged numbers:

Carnival Op. 2.....Schumann
Prelude, Allegretto, Valse
Noble, Rhapsodie, Etroque, Coquette.
Waltz A flat.....Chopin
La Campanella.....Liszt
Bacchante in F sharp.....Liszt
Lento Land.....Cyril Scott
Ballade.....Debussy
Arabesque sans paroles.....Debussy
Leschitzky
Shadow Dance
March Wind.....MacDowell

The event offers a rare opportunity to help the devastated country that has had to bear the brunt of the first days of the war, together with Belgium. Admission is but 50 cents.

For the Refreshment Unit Merchant lunch room, Thursday was the biggest day so far, about $50 being taken in. The tables were beautifully decorated, due to the kindness of J. A. Thornhill of Thornhill Nursery, who donated large bunches of pink sweet peas, and Kalle's Floral company, who were generous with pink and red carnations. A menu of meat loaf, potato and brown gravy, spaghetti and cheese, Spanish style, hot biscuits and butter, Waldorf salad, marshmallow jello and coffee was served. Credit to the theme of Mrs. Howard Coffin, her mother, Mrs. Charles Henning, sergeant for the day, was unable to serve but her corporate, Mrs. Paul Hermann and Mrs. Frank Turner, under the supervision of Mrs. J. L. Campbell, captain, were successfully assisted by Mesdames Harry Schultz, W. H. Loreis, J. J. Platt, H. L. Robinson, W. S. Cooke, Loch T. Tucker, H. G. Clunn, A. J. Strayer, W. Rader, O. A. Childers, Robert Roche, J. H. Grant, P. A. Flanagan and Christine Garlick at serving the tables and booths.

Friday Mrs. D. R. Wilkes, who was to serve Monday, served Tuesday. Her able corporate, Mrs. J. R. Robertson and Mrs. P. Carlock, with their respective units, Mesdames Alma McGeismen, Edna Earl Douglas, Ella Mahoney, Zora Coggins, Gladys Coggins, Esther Herrington, Mrs. Jack B. Knight, Mrs. Robert Herrington, Mrs. John McCabe, Mrs. L. Gamble, Mrs. G. C. Roberts, Mrs. F. M. Tounner, Mrs. C. Morris.

Black and White Always Smart

By GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

THERE is nothing startling in a dress of black and white, yet how striking a woman can look, clad in such a frock if the accessories of her costume are in keeping. A wide brimmed model of black Georgette crepe, trimmed with a large jet pin, in the appropriate hat, white black cloaked stockings and patent leather pumps complete the equipment of good style to be found in this extremely smart example of the black and white costume.

Strict Discipline For Cadets in Second Battalion of High School

By PEARL POMEROY.

THE following announcement and memorandum has been posted on the bulletin in the main hall of the high school, for the benefit of the cadets of the second battalion, Harry Pearson, commanding.

(1) Beginning the week of March 11, the second battalion will undergo a rigid inspection each Monday. Each cadet possessing a uniform must wear it; a generally neat appearance must be maintained.

(2) Commencing Monday, March 4, the discipline of the second battalion will be governed by a system of demerits. Any cadet being awarded 30 demerits or averaging below 70 percent, will fall in military tactics for that month.

Reporting at inspection without uniform, when cadet owns one—5 demerits.

Presenting unclean rifle at inspection—5 demerits.

Reporting at inspection without white collar or stock, when blouse is worn—2 demerits.

Reporting at inspection without proper tie, when C. D. shirt is worn—2 demerits.

Reporting at inspection without shoes—2 demerits.

Failure of cadet in uniform to salute commissioned officers in U. S. army—3 demerits.

Absence from drill without satisfactory excuse—7 demerits.

Other disorders, not here mentioned, will be punished in accordance with the offense.

(3) Company commanders will give close attention to the discipline of each cadet and his command. A monthly grade for each cadet will be reported to headquarters.

Which will be averaged with the percentage from demerits and forwarded to the principal's office.

ALMOST BLIND FROM DIZZINESS

This Virginia Lady Tells of Constant Suffering From Dreadful Backaches, Permanently Relieved By Cardui.

Norton, Va.—Mrs. E. S. Clouse, of this place, writes: "In about 1901 I seemed to get in bad health. I had been married about a year. I called in Dr. —, who treated me. . . and gave me medicine, which didn't do me any good. I suffered agony for about 4 months and felt I must have some relief, for I was so bad off that I was really unable to be up out of bed during all that time.

I could hardly walk, every step was painful and a drag. I would be almost blind from dizziness. I'd have dreadful backaches that never ceased, and severe pains. . . I read of Cardui in the Birthday Almanac and friends urged me to take it. . . I used one bottle with such beneficial results that I gained hope of recovery. After the use of 2 or 3 bottles, I felt so much better that I was able to get up and go about my work. My improvement was steady and after about the 2nd or 4th bottle, I was entirely cured and the cure has been permanent. . . For the past seven years I have had perfect health and my work has been a pleasure."

Try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It is safe, reliable, and of proven merit. All druggists—Adv.

Mrs. Evans's Lecture on Food Conservation is Most Interesting

THURSDAY afternoon was thematic fireless stove demonstration day and was the banner afternoon at The Herald's cooking school for attendance, both the lower floor and the balcony being entirely filled. Interest has steadily grown till the auditorium of the Woman's club is filled to capacity almost every afternoon, though yesterday's attendance was the largest. The surest test of the value of Mrs. Evans' work is to be found in the fact that in all of her demonstrations in El Paso the attendance has always grown from day to day. Saturday afternoon will be the last day of the school and a record crowd is expected.

Yesterday afternoon every woman received a pound of the famous President brand of coffee, through the courtesy of the Finley Coffee company. The lectures and demonstrations of Mrs. Evans are doing a world of good in El Paso in bringing about a fuller realization of the necessity for the saving of certain foods, and in teaching the women how to accomplish this saving. The hardest efforts of the most conscientious housewife to save in accordance with Mr. Hoover's instructions must go astray without proper knowledge and system. It is this information that is being acquired at the cooking school, and in a way that could not be duplicated except by demonstration.

Below are given the recipes used by Mrs. Evans in her cooking yesterday.

Corn Syrup Cake.
1 cup corn syrup.
1 cup brown sugar.
1 cup cold coffee.
1/2 cup shortening.
2 eggs.
3 cups sifted flour.
1 teaspoonful salt.
2 level teaspoonfuls baking powder.
3 level teaspoonfuls cinnamon.
1 teaspoonful ginger.
1/2 teaspoonful nutmeg.
Grated rind of 1 lemon.
2 cups raisins (if desired).
Mix wet syrup, sugar and shortening, add eggs and beat well. Stir in dry ingredients, stir lightly until smooth. Then pour into a well greased pan and bake slowly 30 minutes.

Line a good sized baking dish with a corn meal mush made as follows: 3 table-spoonsful cooking fat, 3 table-spoonsful water, one teaspoonful salt, yellow corn meal to make thick mush.
Into a sauce pan over fire put 3 table-spoonsful cooking fat, 1 pound hamburger steak, 2 finely chopped onions, 2 finely chopped bellpeppers, 1 teaspoonful paprika, 2 teaspoonfuls chili powder, 1-4 teaspoonful pepper.
Let cook 15 minutes, then add 3 cups water, cook 1-2 hour; add 2 cups
